

Tax Consultancy

We advise on tax planning for our clients across all taxes in order to offer tax effective solutions for both businesses and individuals.

Tax planning is always evolving. As existing routes are closed by legislation changes often new opportunities are created. Our aim is to offer bespoke solutions to our clients so they can take advantage of existing legislation.

We also handle all enquiries by HM Revenue & Customs into our clients' tax affairs. We provide a comprehensive service to bring any enquiries to a conclusion in the most beneficial way possible for the client. We offer an affordable fee protection insurance scheme which, if taken up, enables us to provide the right level of service to protect the client from any enquiry, with our costs being covered by the insurance scheme.

What are the costs?

Initial meetings with a member of our consultancy team are without cost or obligation. At, or following the initial meeting, we will provide a fixed quote for the assignment to be undertaken or, in the event of a more indeterminate project, such as an HMRC enquiry, we will advise the anticipated costs and the hourly chargeable rates.

We always look to agree fees and costs in writing before proceeding.
